

---

Organization for Aid to Refugees (OPU)

---

The Organization for Aid to Refugees (OPU) is a non-profit, non-governmental, and humanitarian organization, which has been helping refugees and foreigners in the Czech Republic since 1991. OPU provides free legal and social counseling, organizes educational events, educational programs for the lay and professional public, and other activities to support the integration of foreigners.

Freetime activities with children-foreigners - Prague

Content of the volunteer activity

- assistance with organizing trips around Prague or sports or art activities for children-foreigners (mostly from Ukraine)
- organizing an activity according to your initiative (singing, dancing, photographing, English club,...)

We are looking for

- reliable volunteers who like working with children
- volunteering at least 1x/month
- no need for previous experience, you will be in a team of experienced lecturers or other volunteers

Requirements

- We require a clear criminal record that you can get at the CzechPoint (closer information and assistance you will get from us after your registration)

Time consuming

- according to the volunteer's preference

We offer

- initial training
- ongoing support
- be a part of a bigger team