
Hero clan

HERO CLAN connects diverse non-profit organisations across the whole of the Czech Republic with volunteers who want to contribute their time and skills. This saves non-profit organisations time and energy, allowing them to fully devote themselves to their mission.

Volunteers contribute their skills in a variety of areas such as graphic design, law, accounting, web design and others, or get involved in weekend events. During these events they help out with simple manual tasks such as landscaping, painting, minor repairs, or work in the countryside.

Join us and do some meaningful work, whether it's on the computer from the comfort of home, or in the field. Weekends aren't just about work, but also about spending time together, meeting new people, cooking, eating and going on excursions.

Be a hero for the weekend

Content of the volunteer activity

- You can look forward to various manual jobs such as painting fences, planting trees, sweeping up leaves, chopping wood, building walls, and more.

What we're looking for

- Want to clear your head in the fresh air and give your body a work-out doing manual work?
- See non-profit organisations up close and learn something new?
- Looking for adventure? Then you're just the person for us!
- Anyone can get involved with helping Czech non-profit organisations with us.

What we offer

- Food and accommodation during events
- Health and liability insurance
- Event organisation and a team leader to look after the group
- Spend your weekend doing meaningful work

Working hours

- The work itself takes approximately 8-10 hours during the weekend. The remaining time is free for educational and leisure activities, rest, excursions or a camp fire.

Take a look at our website (link: <https://www.heroclan.cz/en/weekends>), where you'll find the range of events we offer. Sign up to our newsletter to ensure you don't miss out on any weekend events.

One-off expert volunteer

Job description

Want to contribute your skills to help non-profit organisations to achieve better results? With us, you can help on a one-off or short-term basis in your professional or private area of interest, and with something you're good at. Join the clan with your superpower and we'll get in touch when we need you. You decide yourself whether you go for it. In all cases, both the job description and the hours required depend on the specific requirements of the non-profit organisation and the possibilities of the volunteer.

What we're looking for

We're looking for heroes who are willing to help non-profit organisations on a one-off basis doing what they know and enjoy best. Whether it's graphics, social media admin, photography, law, accounting, web design, AI, skiing or anything else.

What we offer

We offer work with non-profit organisation in all fields and from all over the Czech Republic. While some jobs are tied to a specific location, the vast majority can be done online from home and at times that suit the volunteer (e.g. preparation of graphical materials, modification of websites, online training/consultation, etc.).

Working hours

One-off assistance (1-8 hours) according to the preference of the volunteer.

Register with our volunteer database and we'll get back to you with a date for an information meeting where we can tell you what you need to know.
